Whitehall, July 26.

TO the Intent that no Perſon may through Ignorance of the Law or Inadvertency omit complying with the Directions of the Act herein after ſet forth, and incur the Penalties thereby inflicted, it is thought proper to inſert the ſame at large in this Gazette; and all Perſons whatſoever, both Men and Women, in England, Scotland, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, reſpectively, being of the Age of 18 or upwards, and not having taken the Oaths therein mentioned before the Firſt Day of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, are to take Notice that they are obliged to take the ſaid Oaths within the Time, and in ſome of the Courts preſcribed for that Purpoſe, at their Peril, without any Summons or Notice for their ſo doing, or in Default thereof to Regiſter their Names and real Eſtates in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Act requires, under the Penalty of forfeiting all ſuch real Eſtate as they, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them, ſhall be ſeized of, or otherwiſe intereſted in, at the Time when they ought to have made ſuch Regiſter.

Anno Nono Georgii Regis.

An Act to oblige all Perſons, being Papiſts, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Perſons in Great Britain, refuſing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by ſeveral Acts herein mentioned, to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates.

WHereas ſince His Majeſty's Happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, divers Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Traiterous Conſpiracies have been entred into, and carried on, for the Deſtruction of His Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, the overturning our Religious and Civil Rights, and for placing a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne: And whereas the Papiſts, and other Perſons, refuſing to take the Oaths appointed by Law to be taken to His Majeſty, have enjoyed, and do ſtill enjoy the Protection and Benefits of the Government, as well as the reſt of His Majeſty's Subjects, yet have been Notoriouſly concerned in Contriving, Stirring up, and Supporting the ſaid Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Conſpiracies, by which it moſt manifeſtly appears, that they take themſelves to be obliged, by the Principles they profeſs, to be Enemies to His Majeſty and the preſent Happy Eſtabliſhment; and foraſmuch as it is highly reaſonable, that the Government ſhould be throughly acquainted with, and apprized of the Number, Names, and Real Eſtates of ſuch diſaffected Perſons, as aforeſaid, in order more effectually to prevent, diſappoint or puniſh the like Traiterous Attempts for the future, in ſuch Manner, as by the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall hereafter be thought proper; Be it therefore Enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who ſhall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upward, not having already taken the Oaths appointed to be taken in and by an Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princeſs Sophia being Proteſtants, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors;] and who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths on or before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty three, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or at the General or Quarter-Seſſions for the County, City, Town, Liberty, or Diviſion, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall live or inhabit, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths by the Time aforeſaid, ſhall, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four, Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their reſpective Names and Real Eſtates, in ſuch and the ſame Manner and Form, as Papiſts were obliged and directed to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, in and by an Act paſſed in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates;] and alſo by another Act made and paſſed in the Third Year of His ſaid Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, and for enlarging the Time for ſuch Regiſtring, and for ſecuring Purchaſes made to the Proteſtants;] and the reſpective Officers, appointed by the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts, paſſed in the Firſt and Third Years of His Majeſty's Reign, appointed and directed to take and receive the Regiſters of the Names and Real Eſtates of ſuch Papiſts, are hereby authorized and required to take and receive the Regiſter of the Names and Real Eſtates, which are by virtue of this Act appointed to be Regiſtred, in ſuch and the ſame Manner and Form, as by the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts are preſcribed in relation to Papiſts; and ſhall ſign and return true Copies of the ſame into His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, on or before the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That every Article, Clauſe, and Thing, in the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts contained, relating to the Regiſtring of the Names and Real Eſtates of Papiſts, or to receiving or taking the ſaid Regiſters, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwiſe, into the Truth and Reality of the ſame, ſhall extend and be conſtrued to extend to all and every the Regiſters required and directed to be made and received, by and in purſuance of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if the ſame were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons, who is or are hereby directed and required to take and ſubſcribe the Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, as aforeſaid, or for want thereof, to Regiſter his, her, or their Names and Real Eſtates, ſhall not take and ſubſcribe ſuch Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their Names and Real Eſtates, in ſuch Manner, as in this Act before is directed, within the reſpective Times herein before limited and appointed for the doing thereof, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon or Perſons neglecting or refuſing to take and ſubſcribe ſuch Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or for want thereof, to make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Fee-Simple and Inheritance of, or ſuch Eſtate and Intereſt in all ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments not Regiſtred, whereof he, ſhe, or they, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for him, her, or them, was or were ſeized in Fee-Simple, or otherwiſe intereſted in at the Time of ſuch Default, as aforeſaid; Two Third Parts thereof to the King, and the other Third Part thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being a Proteſtant or Proteſtants, who ſhall ſue for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lie in England, the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any ſuch Court, and by ſuch Ways or Means, as are directed by the ſaid recited Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates; and ſhall ſue in His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lye in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Perſon or Perſons now beyond the Seas, who by virtue of this Act ought to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons do, within Six Months after his, her, or their Return into Great Britain, take or ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, according to the Appointment of this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being Proteſtants, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, hath or have taken and ſubſcribed, or ſhall, within the reſpective Times by this Act limited, take and ſubſcribe the Oath appointed to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Scotland, by an Act of the Fifth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for making more effectual the Laws appointing the Oaths for Security of the Government, to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Churches and Meeting-Houſes in Scotland] inſtead and in lieu of the Abjuration Oath, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed and taken to have complied with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if ſuch Perſon had taken the ſaid Oath of Abjuration, and ſhall not incur any of the Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, or be obliged to Regiſter his, her, or their Names, or Real Eſtates; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Whereas the frequent Uſe and Wear of wrought Silks, Bengalls and Stuffs, mixed with Silk or Herbs of the Manufacture of Perſia, China and Eaſt-India, in Apparel and Furniture, in Contempt of, and Oppoſition to an Act paſſed in the 11*th and* 12*th of King William the Third, induced the Manufacturers ſometime ſince to adverтiſe in the publick Prints, That in the Opinion of eminent Council with whom they had then lately conſulted, the Uſe and Wear of the ſaid Goods, by Virtue of the Act of Parliament aforeſaid, were liable to ſuch and the like Penalties as by the ſaid Act are provided, for keeping or expoſing them to Sale in Pieces or otherwiſe; and whereas not only the Uſe and Wear of the ſaid prohibited Goods were frequently after that Time continued, notwithſtanding theſe Advertiſements by the Manufacturers, and in Defiance of the moſt obvious Senſe of the ſaid Act (about that Time reprinted in the London Gazette:) Theſe are therefore to give Notice, That the Manufacturers have ſince been obliged, after Application to the Honourable the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and with the Privity and Aſſiſtance of that Honourable Board, to cauſe great Quantities of the ſaid prohibited Goods, made up and uſed as aforeſaid in Apparel or Furniture, to be ſeized, condemned, and ſold at the Cuſtom-Houſe for Exportation, purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Act, of which all Perſons concern'd are again deſired to take Notice, the ſame Proviſion being ſtill continued for effectually ſuppreſſing or puniſhing the unlawful Uſe and Wear of the ſaid prohibited wrought Silks. N. B. That the Manufacturers, on Application to the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, were by that Honourable Board informed, that the Truth and Validity of the Opinion of Council, relating to the ſaid Act formerly advertiſed by them, had been frequently before that Time confirmed by repeated Judgments of His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer.*
